By Marguerite Harrington

What you need:

- ✦ pencil
- ✦ poster board
- ✦ scissors
- ✦ construction paper
- ✦ white glue
- ✦ markers
- ✦ chalk
- ✦ dry cloth
- ✦ tape

How to make it:

1. Draw a snowman (or other design) on poster board and cut it out.
2. Cut out a heart from black construction paper. Cut out a bigger heart from paper of any color.
3. Glue the big heart on the snowman. Glue the black heart on top. Paint white glue on the black heart.
4. Cut out a hat and scarf from paper and glue them on. Use markers to draw a face.
5. Use a marker to write the name of the holiday and "Countdown!"
6. On the black heart, use chalk to write the number of days left until the holiday. To change the number, erase it with a dry cloth.
7. With permission, tape the snowman on your wall or door.
